

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INTRODUCTION

The Council on Medical Education of the American Institute of Homœopathy takes pleasure in presenting herewith a report on the Hospitals of the Homœopathic School of Medicine, including Sanatoriums, Homes, Asylums, etc.

This is rather in the nature of a general survey of our Institutions than an attempt to grade or standardize them. It has been realized that the time spent in this Hospital work, now already two years, is insufficient to properly effect and to get into working condition many reforms necessary to place all our Institutions in a position to receive as interns the graduates of our Medical Colleges and to furnish them the added fifth year of Medical instruction already demanded by some of our states and soon to be required by others.

In our preliminary work of inspection many suggestions have been made to our Institutions as to what is necessary to be done on their part to place and keep them in the class above referred to. That these suggestions, in the majority of instances, will be carried out goes without saying, and after a sufficient interval to permit the working out of these changes a reinspection will promptly determine the proper grading of a given institution.

A temporary or tentative classification of the Institutions herein recorded upon the schedule presented to the Institute and adopted by that body in 1914 gives us the subdivisions which we have denominated: (1) Accredited, (2) Registered and (3) Affiliated and those failing to report.

While the Council will not recommend to State Boards that all of the Hospitals in this tentative Accredited Class be recognized by them, it is certain that it will advise that the Hospitals of this class be given preference, as none of the Institutions in the other classes will be recognized: moreover, this will work no hardship upon the graduates of our Colleges, for there are plenty of excellent hospital positions for all.

We have added a section on Foreign Homœopathic Hospitals which will be of interest to our friends and a splint to the weak-kneed who are inclined to hearken to those who still sing that made-in-Allopathy-dirge of sixty years ago entitled "Homœopathy is Dying."

The Secretary of the Council desires to express his and the Council's appreciation and gratitude for the assistance rendered by Trustee Frederick M. Dearborn, M.D., of New York City, in the work of assembling photographic material for this report and supervision of its publication.

COUNCIL ON MEDICAL EDUCATION,

W. A. DEWEY, M.D., Secretary.

Ann Arbor, Michigan.

June 1, 1916.

ACCREDITED HOSPITALS.

Hospitals which are essentially under homœopathic management and medical staff, whose reports to the Council are complete and have been verified by inspection, are placed in the Accredited Class.

The records furnished for the last fiscal year of each institution represents work done by homœopathic physicians alone and the percentage of cures and the low mortality rates are the logical results of homœopathic treatment.

The property valuation is purely and alone that of homœopathic institutions.

HAYNES MEMORIAL HOSPITAL, BOSTON, MASS.

The death rate in the Contagious Disease Hospital for 1914 was

Diphtheria	5.0%
Scarlet Fever	2.2%
Measles	2.7%

No other institution of like character can equal this remarkable low mortality.

NURSES' HOME
Massachusetts Homœopathic Hospital

WESSEN MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Springfield, Mass.

Beds, 70. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 639. Mortality rate, 5.9%. Valuation of property, $500,000.

This is one of the finest hospitals of the homœopathic school of medicine. Its architectural features are perfect. It is entirely homœopathic in management and staff. A training school composed of thirty-six students is connected therewith. A nurses' home is separate from the main hospital. Physicians of the allopathic school are permitted to bring and treat cases, but these are not enumerated above.

Homœopathic Data.

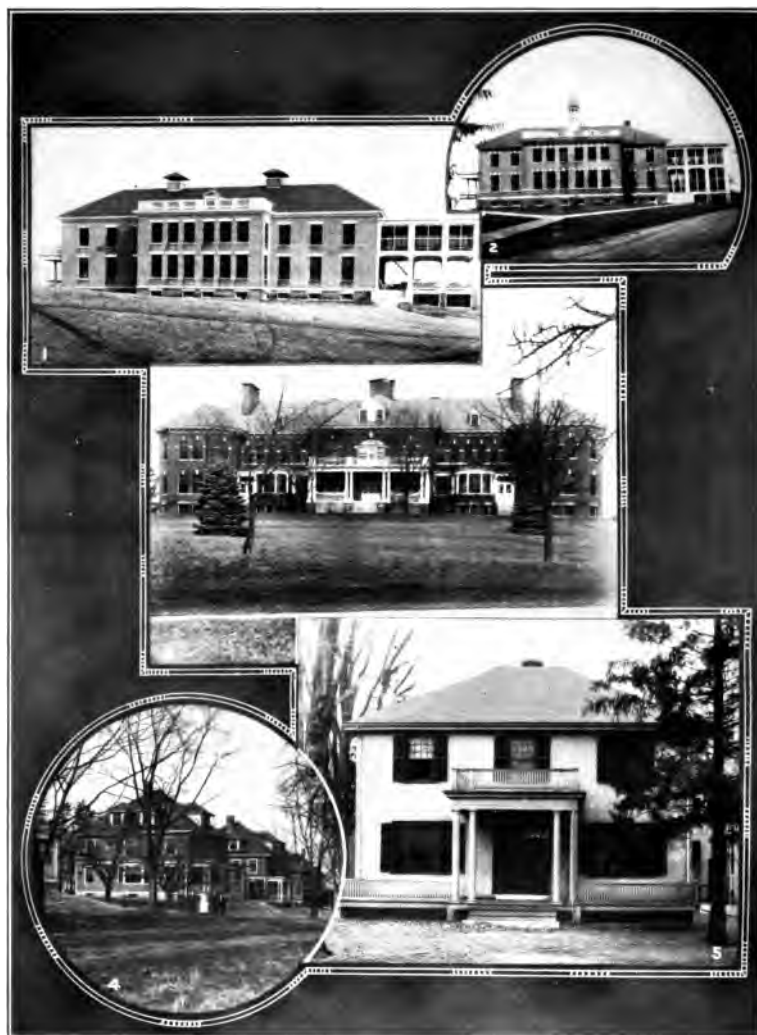

Beds, 118. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year by homœopathic physicians, 249. Mortality rate, 4%. Number on House Staff, 1. Valuation of property; $190,000.

This is an institution that has homœopathic representation provided for in the creative enactment. At the present time one-third of the beds are under the homœopathic service and the records are so kept as to separate the two schools.

There is no visiting staff, the hospital being run entirely by homœopathic physicians. It has a special training school for nurses receiving instruction from the house staff, which numbers four, one being a homœopathic physician. The course is two years.

It was the first sanatorium established in America for the curative treatment of early cases of Tuberculosis among the working classes.

This institution is the largest general hospital under homœopathic management in the world. Besides the units herein illustrated are some thirty buildings devoted to the various activities of the institution. It occupies thirty acres of land on the northern end of Blackwell's Island, New York City, is owned by the municipality, and is under the direct supervision of the Department of Public Charities.

The original institution was opened in 1875 and was known as the Homœopathic Hospital, Ward's Island. It removed to its present site in 1894. The Reception Hospital at the foot of East 70th Street, Manhattan, belongs to this institution.

The nurses' home is one of the finest in the world and accommodates the pupil nurses, there being 74 in the Training School. There are 61 supervising and head nurses (nearly all graduates of the Metropolitan Training School), 83 trained attendants, and 163 ward maids or orderlies. The present number of employees is 769.

In the various wards of the general hospital division are accommodations for 405 males and 218 females, in the children's hospital division beds for 460, and in the tuberculosis hospital division beds for 670 males and 144 females.

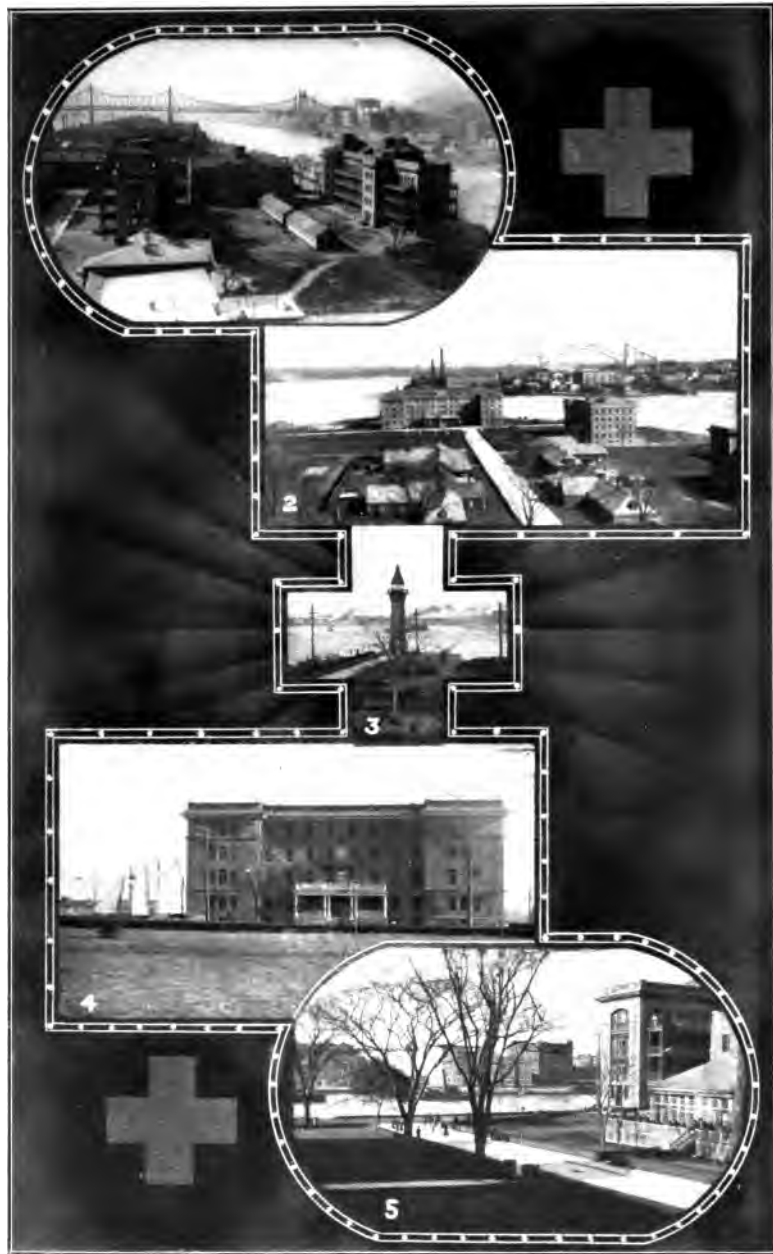

Only charity cases are taken, there being no private rooms. Frequently the actual number of patients exceeds the normal bed capacity, thus on January 26, 1915, there were actually 2,238 patients in the wards.

The Medical Board comprises 24 physicians, is self-perpetuating and entirely homœopathic. There are 44 other physicians on the assistant visiting staff, which is appointed yearly. In the 46 years of its history the Charities Department has never rejected any recommendation of the Medical Board.

Reception Hospital, Foot of East 70th Street, Manhattan,
New York City

This division of the Metropolitan Hospital maintains a motor ambulance service, covering a district assigned by the City Board of Ambulance Control. In 1915, it answered 4,527 calls, besides receiving 1,477 "walk-in" cases.

FLOWER HOSPITAL

New York City

This hospital is an integral part of the New York Homœopathic Medical College. The Surgical Building was built in 1890 and soon after the Medical structure followed. Then a Dispensary and Dormitory for employees, a Nurses' Home, an Isolation Building, a modern Ambulance Stable, and finally, in 1914, a six-story fireproof private Pavilion capable of accommodating 100 patients, were successively added. A registered Training School with 43 pupil nurses is maintained. The ambulance service of four motor and one horse ambulance has been for years and still is the largest and best equipped of any homœopathic hospital. In the past year 5,671 calls were answered by the ambulances. New York City has the best ambulance system in the world and the Flower territory is one of its important sections.

New York City

Beds, 132. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 1,776. Death rate, 3.3%. Number on House Staff, 4. Valuation of property, $1,100,000.

This hospital, established in 1869, is beautifully located on Park Avenue, New York City, having a frontage of an entire block from 67th to 68th Streets. It has a registered Training School comprising 45 pupils, housed in a rented building near the hospital.

The main building with a modern north wing is four stories in height and thoroughly equipped. There are besides a small laboratory building, a morgue and a storehouse.

It is a condition of the original charter that no one except a homeopathic physician may treat a case in any department of this hospital.

LAURA FRANKLIN FREE HOSPITAL FOR CHILDREN

New York City

Beds, 75. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 1,234. Death rate, 0.7%. Valuation of property, $500,000.

It has a daily average of 74 children at a per capita cost of 55 cents.

According to the hospital By-Laws, the Medical Board "Shall be members of the Homœopathic Medical Society of the County of New York in good standing." No children's hospital has a lower death rate, better records or a higher grade of efficiency.

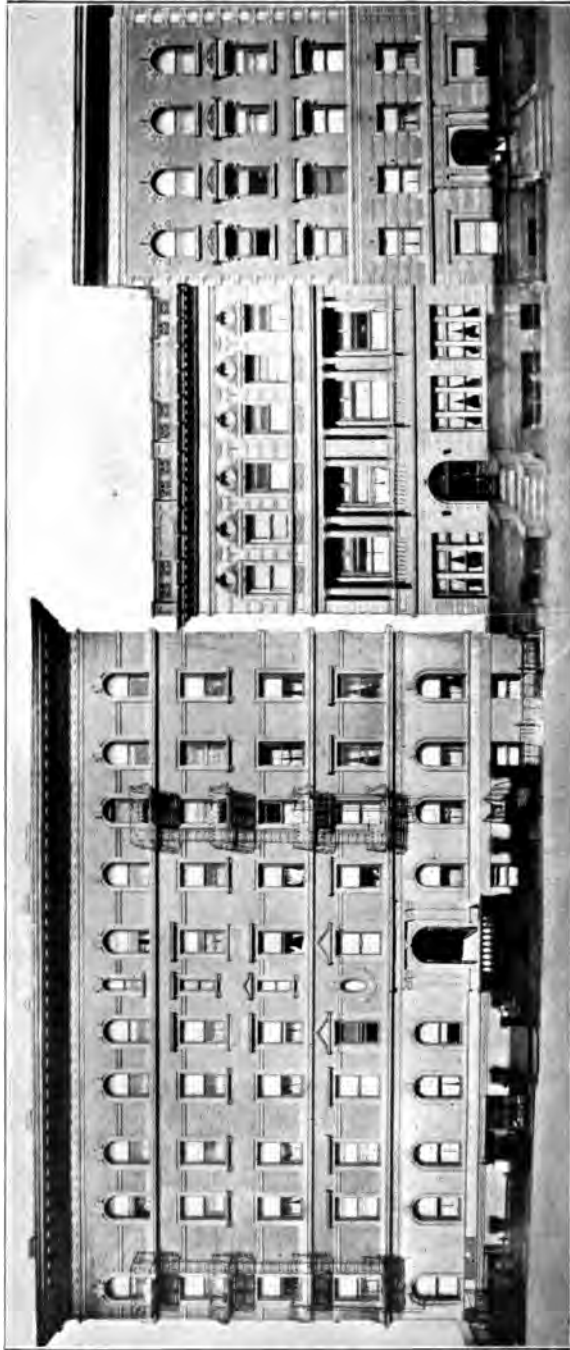

NEW YORK OPHTHALMIC HOSPITAL

New York City

Beds, 80. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 1,505. Number on House Staff, 2. Death rate, 0.5%. Valuation of property, $150,000.

This institution comprises a five-story brick and stone building devoted exclusively to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat cases. It was established in 1852, and for over sixty years has been in successful operation. A three months' course is given in special Eye, Ear and Throat nursing, but no regular training school is connected therewith, as its function is entirely special. It is, and has been since 1867, exclusively homœopathic.

During the last fiscal year the Dispensary treated 13,350 new cases and made 57,581 prescriptions.

NEW YORK MEDICAL COLLEGE AND HOSPITAL FOR WOMEN, NEW YORK CITY

Beds, 55. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 529. Death rate, 3.5%. Number on House Staff, 3. Valuation of property, $230,000.

This hospital has just completed its fiftieth year of existence. It is entirely homoeopathic in management and is run in connection with the New York Medical College for Women. A new adjoining building has just been purchased, which will add 25 more hospital beds. The Dispensary patients treated during last year numbered 1,023.

CUMBERLAND STREET HOSPITAL

Brooklyn, N. Y.

Beds, 183. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 3,126. Mortality rate, 6%. Number on House Staff, 8. Valuation of property, $245,000.

This hospital is owned and supported by the City of New York, under the supervision of the Commissioner of Public Charities. It was founded as the Brooklyn Homoeopathic Dispensary, November 22, 1852, and became the Brooklyn Homoeopathic Hospital in 1872 when the present property was acquired. By legislative enactment it was acquired by the city on July 17, 1902. The present plant consists of a main hospital building which is "L" shaped, a smaller brick building housing the ambulance, garage, morgue, laboratory and male employees' quarters, female employees' dormitory and two rented houses used as nurses' homes. A new adjacent property, 50 x 200 feet, has been recently acquired by the city for further buildings. It maintains a regular city motor ambulance service, which answered 1,488 calls in 1915, and has a nurses' staff of 22, 15 being undergraduates.

In the Dispensary 20,961 cases were treated during the past year.

PROSPECT HEIGHTS HOSPITAL AND BROOKLYN MATERNITY

Brooklyn, N. Y.

Beds, 68. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 1,369. Death rate, 3.3%. Number on House Staff, 1. Valuation of property, $53,000.

This institution is entirely devoted to the homœopathic school though privileges are not denied physicians of other schools. There is no ambulance service. It has a training school of 26 pupils, and enjoys the distinction of being the first training school for nurses organized in the United States, though the charter dates one month later than the Massachusetts General Hospital.

BROOKLYN NURSERY AND INFANTS' HOSPITAL

Brooklyn, N. Y.

Beds. 50. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 112. Mortality rate, 6.2%. No House Staff. Valuation of property, $80,000.

This is a thoroughly homœopathic institution, and cares for needy and friendless infants under four years of age. It has a special course in training for nurses with eight pupils.

Beds, 2,162. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 2,445. Death rate, 5.9%. Number on House Staff, 12. Valuation of property, $2,035,895.

This is a New York State Hospital for the insane, incorporated in 1870 and opened in 1874. Since then over 11,000 patients have been admitted.

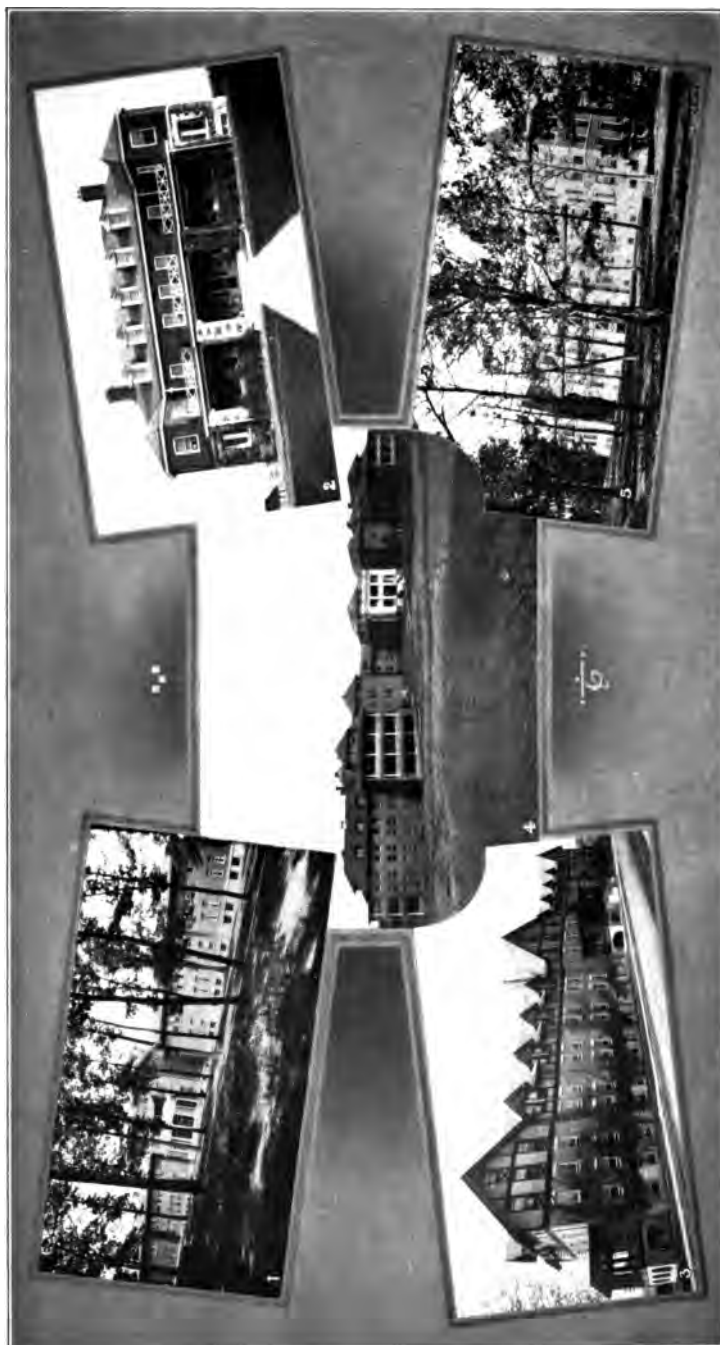

It is the finest Homœopathic Insane Institution in the world, and one of which the school may be justly proud, because since its establishment the treatment employed has ever been of the strictest homœopathicity and the results have been little short of marvellous.

There are 47 separate buildings, 12 of which are for the accommodation of patients, while the remainder supply every want that this village of 2,200 patients and 450 employees may need. The total acreage of the grounds is 543. A large farm is connected with the hospital, which is worked largely by the inmates.

It has a consulting staff of seven members and a large Training School for both sexes. There are 43 nurses in training, and further 42 nurses and 212 ward attendants employed.

The system of record keeping in this institution is as near perfect as is possible to attain perfection. It is the proud boast of this hospital that no narcotic or sleep-producing drugs have ever been found in its pharmacy.

It represents the high-water mark of homœopathic efficiency.

Yonkers, N. Y.

Beds, 70. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 1,678. Death rate, 4.5%. Number on House Staff, 1. Valuation of property, $681,000.

This institution is a fine one, free of debt and well endowed, homœopathic in management and staff, modern, fireproof structure with two houses used as nurses' homes. It has a training school of 18 pupils instructed by medical and nursing staff.

This institution shows what an intelligent and progressive board of lady managers plus the united efforts of the whole homœopathic profession of a small city, never numbering more than twelve, can do in twenty years' time.

ALBANY HOMŒOPATHIC HOSPITAL

Albany, N. Y.

Beds, 100. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 2,166. Death rate, 5.9%. House Staff, 4. Valuation of property, $300,360.

This beautiful institution comprises the main building and a nurses home. It was incorporated in 1875 and the new building opened in 1908. It was built entirely by homeopathic influence and the management has ever been homeopathic, though allopathic physicians have private and consultation privileges. It possesses an ambulance service and a training school having 42 pupils.

The dispensary connected with the hospital treated 13,350 cases during the past year.

UTICA HOMŒOPATHIC HOSPITAL, UTICA, N. Y.
Old Building

Beds, 22. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 430.
 Death rate, 1.1%. No House Staff. Valuation of property, $305,000.

UTICA HOMŒOPATHIC HOSPITAL, UTICA, N. Y.

Building just completed will have 70 beds. Entirely homœopathic staff. Training school of 20 pupils. The hospital is endowed and a great credit to the local profession.

SYRACUSE HOMŒOPATHIC HOSPITAL

Syracuse, N. Y.

Beds, 52. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 864. Death rate, 4.9%. Number on House Staff, 1. Valuation of property, $155,000.

This hospital was founded in 1896 and consists of four buildings. It has a training school of 20 pupils and a separate nurses' home, maternity building and dispensary.

ROCHESTER HOMŒOPATHIC HOSPITAL

Rochester, N. Y.

Front View

Beds, 139. Number of patients treated during last fiscal year, 2,836. Death rate, 4.9%. House Staff, 4. Valuation of property, $473,698.

This institution was opened in 1889 and comprises a central administration building and two wings, a new nurses' home has been recently erected and a maternity annex. It is well conducted and a credit to the School. It has a training school of 52 pupils. Active ambulance service answered 1,354 calls.

The dispensary treated 8,267 cases during the last fiscal year.

MONTGOMERY WARD AND COMPANY

Chicago, Ill.

The welfare department of this mammoth industrial concern, one of the largest in the world, is under homœopathic medical direction.

There is no actual hospital connected with the establishment, but there are 13 beds in the rest room for women, and two for men for emergency use only. All the sick and injured are sent by ambulance to Hahnemann Hospital, where all operating is done and all sickness cared for.

The amount of work done is enormous, thus, there were treated in the medical offices during 1915, 49,034 employees, which averages over 160 cases a day. There was a total of 1,095 accident cases, and the physicians of the staff made 1,767 calls. This does not include the work done by the matron or the nurses, house and visiting.

The medical staff comprises the director and three assistants, all graduates in homœopathic medicine and four nurses. The specialists, including the X-rayist, are also homœopaths.

The saving to the firm in the matter of drugs alone has been enormous, to say nothing of the great lessening of days of illness that always obtains when homœopathic treatment is followed.

OTHER FIRMS

The following concerns are also to be noted as being under homœopathic direction:

National Cash Register Co., Dayton, Ohio.—Treated during last year 25,024 cases.

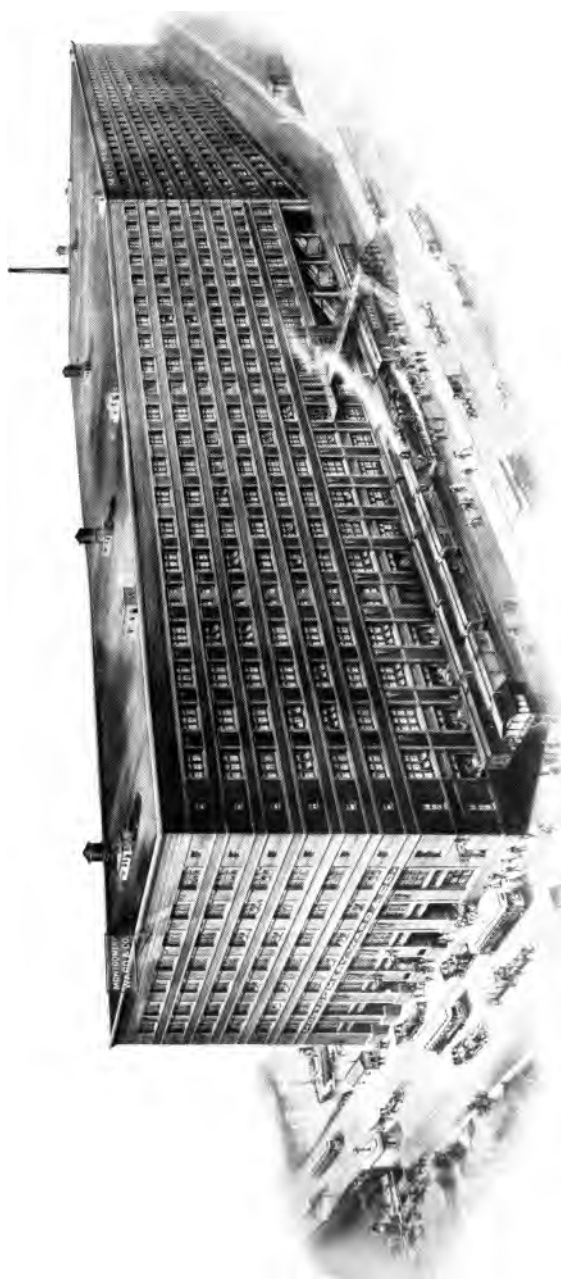

General Electric Company, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Continental Motor Co., Detroit, Mich.

Chalmers Motor Co., Detroit, Mich.

The Studebaker Corporation, Detroit, Mich.

There are doubtless many more, but no special effort has been made to secure a complete list.

MONTGOMERY WARD AND COMPANY, CHICAGO, ILL.

REGISTERED HOSPITALS

In this class we have listed those institutions which can easily comply with the requirements of the accredited class, but which are faulty in some particular, more frequently record keeping. They are homœopathic in management and staff and can with little trouble qualify in the accredited class. The obstacle to be overcome is the fact that physicians of other schools of medicine are permitted to bring and treat cases, and the records of these and the death rate go into the general hospital statistics. This always lessens the percentage of cures and increases the mortality rate over those hospitals completely homœopathic. Such institutions cannot be placed in our accredited class until such records are segregated.

Cullis Consumptive Home, Boston, Mass.—Admits only incurables. No records. 40 beds. Valuation, $75,000.

Home for Aged Women, Providence, R. I.—Merely a home for women over 65.

Walters Park Sanatorium, Walters Park, Pa.—A private sanatorium of 100 beds. Records poorly kept. Other physicians admitted.

Hahnemann Hall Sanatorium, Atlantic City, N. J.—Private. Other schools admitted. No records furnished. Valuation, $52,000. "Not in any way a hospital."

Wellesley Nervine, Mass.—Beds, 30. Records lacking. Other physicians admitted.

Children's Friends Society, Providence, R. I.—A home for healthy children. Under homœopathic treatment in case of illness. No records.

Home for the Friendless, Chicago, Ill.—Necessary data refused, though wholly homœopathic.

Graham Home for Old Ladies, Brooklyn, N. Y.—Partially homœopathic. No proper records.

Martha Wilson Home, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.—A home for old ladies. 16 beds. Valuation, $54,000. Medical treatment entirely homœopathic. No records.

Christian Home for Intemperate Men, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.—50 inmates. Entirely under homœopathic medical management. No records. Valuation, $125,000.

Peoples' Institute and Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Day Nursery.—Valuation, $10,000. Medical work entirely homœopathic. No records.

Broad Street Hospital of the City of New York.—Largely homœopathic. 36 homœopaths and 10 allopaths on the staff. No data.

Jamaica Hospital, Jamaica, N. Y.—50 beds. Predominantly homœopathic, but no utilizable records.

Five Points House of Industry, New York City.—A temporary home for children. Entirely homœopathic, but no utilizable data.

Louise Erlanger Home for Orphan Children, New York City.—Attending physician is a homœopath. No records.

Jennie Clarkson Home, Valhalla, N. Y.—Attending physician is a homœopath. No records.

Vassar Brothers Home, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—Attending physician is a homœopath. No records.

Plainfield Sanatorium, Plainfield, N. J.—Report unobtainable. Homœopathic in all particulars.

Crest View Sanatorium, Greenwich, Conn.—Homœopathic. Records unobtainable.

AFFILIATED HOSPITALS

The hospitals of this class are neither completely homœopathic in management nor in medical staff. They admit physicians of all schools and there are no separate records kept to show the results of treatment. In most cases their only value to homœopathy is personal by giving physicians of a given locality a place where patients may be taken and treated. There are many hospitals which allow homœopathic physicians facilities for private cases. When these have been reported, we have included them.

As in nearly all these institutions the house staff is allopathic there is little surety of homœopathic treatment being logically followed in any given case. It is especially noted that in these mixed hospitals the death rate is increased to a considerable extent over those under strictly homœopathic auspices.

City Hospital, Quincy, Mass.—Homœopathic physicians have privileges. Death rate, 9.5%.

Huron Road Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio.—A mixed hospital in management, medical staff and records. It is of no value or credit to the homœopathic school. Death rate, 6.1%.

Emerson Hospital, Jamaica Plain, Mass.—A private hospital mixed in management, staff and records.

Muncie Sanatorium, Brooklyn, N. Y.—Not completely homœopathic either in management, medical work or records.

Mercy Hospital, Muskegon, Mich.—All schools admitted.

St. Louis, Mo., City Hospital.—Has one surgeon of the homœopathic school on regular staff.

Leonard Morse Hospital, Natick, Mass.—About one-third homœopathic. Staff management predominantly allopathic. Death rate, 8%.

Lowell General Hospital, Lowell, Mass.—Mixed staff, about one-third homœopathic. Management predominantly allopathic.

Jordan Hospital, Plymouth, Mass.—Two homœopaths on visiting staff. No separate records.

Maternity Hospital, Minneapolis, Minn.—Not entirely homœopathic in management, but largely so in staff, though other schools bring cases. No death records kept.

Chapin Home for Aged and Infirm, Jamaica, N. Y.—The inmates may select allopathic or homœopathic treatment as they may desire.

Bancroft Training School, Haddonfield, N. J.—For mentally abnormal children. Allopathic and homœopathic schools admitted.

Arlington Heights, Mass., Resort and Ring Sanatorium.—A mixed institution. Private.

Dorcas Invalids' Home for Incurables, Cleveland, Ohio.—All schools may treat cases, according to inmates' desires. It is mostly under homœopathic management.

HOMŒOPATHIC TRAINING SCHOOLS FOR NURSES

As physicians graduating from Homœopathic Colleges possess, in addition to a general medical education, an added knowledge of homœopathic medicine and surgery, so nurses graduating from Homœopathic Training Schools are better equipped for their profession by possessing the added knowledge of homœopathic prophylaxis, sanitation and drug effects that these training schools alone give.

The Council on Medical Education recognizes certain training schools and presents herewith the list of these, with the number of pupils, designating them as general, special, insane, maternity, children's, etc.

Candidates for training in nursing are counselled to select their schools from this list.

GENERAL SUMMARY

There are 101 institutions in the Accredited Class.

These represent 20,092 beds.

During the past fiscal year there were treated 109,527 hospital patients.

The average mortality rate in these institutions was 4.1 per cent.

There are required annually 248 interns to properly house-staff these hospitals.

The estimated valuation of the properties of these strictly homœopathic institutions is $36,819,452.

There are 19 institutions in the Registered Class.

There are here recorded 153 institutions which encourage and permit homœopathic physicians and treatment to be employed therein with a strong probability that this number is greatly underestimated.

In the Out-Door or Dispensary Departments of these institutions and those reporting to the Council there were treated during the last fiscal year 287,887 patients.

Allowing the same average number of patients for the 19 Registered Hospitals as in the 101 in the Accredited Class, and counting Dispensary cases, it is at once seen that during the past year there were treated in the charitable institutions of the Homœopathic School in the United States 415,000 sick and injured persons.

Add the number of patients treated homœopathically in the 153 institutions having homœopathic affiliation and we would have an approach to 750,000 of the hospital cases in the United States receiving annually therein homœopathic treatment.

In states wherein a survey has been made indicating the medical faith of the population it was found that actually 35.5% employs homœopathic treatment and 48.5% are kindly disposed toward homœopathy.

In the training school for nurses connected with the purely homœopathic institutions there are enrolled 1,849 pupils.
